Express Yourself!

Students will:

- learn to draw what they see in a noncompetitive, creative environment
- experience mixed media painting and illustration projects
- develop self esteem through their drawing success.

We will use markers, watercolors, pastels, and other mediums.

Jo-Ann Thompson-Claybourne is a native of Stamford Connecticut and attended the School of Visual Arts in Manhattan New York, and has 37 years experience in Sketching, Drawing, Painting and Collages. She creates new and exciting pieces, using different mediums to capture the vision she sees while creating each piece. The Artworks of Leroy Campbell and Paul Goodnight have inspired Jo-Ann to explore her creativity to it's fullest. Jo-Ann has shown her work throughout in CT and NY and in November created a line of greeting cards.

Susan Jackson lived in CA for 12 years where she worked as an exhibit designer, a theatrical scenic designer, and a Walt Disney Imagineer. Always knowing in her heart that she wanted to teach children, in 1990 Susan found her way to the front of the classroom at the Monart School for the Arts in Santa Monica, CA. Since returning to CT Susan has been arranging and teaching drawing/art classes throughout Fairfield County. In 1999 Susan opened the Paint, Draw & More! Studio in Georgetown, CT and along with teaching children and adult classes, has been teaching training workshops for teachers to use drawing as a teaching tool in the classrooms of public schools.
